

I AM BLUE

I am the soft powder blue of the pale gray mist
Floating in the mountains and over the rivers
Penetrating spaces between the trees
Fasing along the limbs and leaves.

I am the periwinkle blue of a softly subdued lilac sunset
Over green mountains wearing white caps.

I am the blue of the endless ocean
Restless waves pounding distant shores
Fbb and flow, continuous,
Deep, mysterious, yet knowledgeable
Containing life in abundance with variety
And many secrets, too.

I am the loving blue of tender eyes
Eyes of my father, eyes of friends, trustworthy true
Eyes that let you see into the soothing soul.

I am the subtle blue of the river
Peaceful soft waves relaxing those fortunate enough to listen and to see.

I am the gentle blue reflected in a birdbath or a puddle.

I am the natural blue of blue bells, blu-its and bachelor buttons.

I am the healing blue, the restful wavelength, easy on the eyes and spirit.

I am the comforting blue of limitless space,
Closeness to angels and connection to God.

I am everlasting and omnipresent blue.
