

TEAM BUILDING Thursday

Don't get stuck in the "We have always done it THIS WAY" mindset. Try to think of new and different approaches to reach potential new members. Take a moment to reflect on what your club is doing well and what things you might change. Are you sharing those things you're doing well and taking steps to change the others?

FELLOWSHIP Friday

Today is Fellowship Friday. What are more and different ways to bring more members into your KEHA community? Encourage current members to invite new people to a meeting or a KEHA Activity.

SUCCESS & SHARING Saturday

KEHA week wraps up with Success and Sharing Saturday! Always be ready to share each other's success and all the opportunities available with KEHA. What are three things that you are doing RIGHT to build confidence in your fellow homemakers?

Milestone Journal

KEHA is an important part of your story. Use this Milestone Journal to guide your thoughts and feelings as you reflect on the many ways that your experience with your fellow homemakers has nurtured and shaped you to confidently become the person you are today!

#GOALS

MAKE GOALS Monday

It is Make Goals Monday! Share guidelines on how to make plans to achieve your goals. Try new approaches. Remember SMART goals (specific, measurable, achievable, relevant, and time-bound) are successful goals.

TRAINING Tuesday

What is your BIG idea for moving your homemaker club membership to the next level? Remember to share your idea at your next club meeting. Just think how your county will grow if each club implements just one idea.
